

Dr Ganesh Kumar, Chief Interventional Cardiologist at Dr L H Hiranandani Hospital performed and demonstrated a complex coronary angioplasty (a case of CTO – Chronic Total Occlusion)

Dr Ganesh Kumar, Chief Interventional Cardiologist at Dr L H Hiranandani Hospital performed and demonstrated a complex coronary angioplasty (a case of CTO – Chronic Total Occlusion) on 28th April 2012 which was done live at MIMS Calicut and was relayed (with HD via Satellite) to audience comprising of interventional cardiologist from across the country who assembled at Kochi as a part of NIC midterm conference 2012. The programme was a part of teaching to the audience featuring and showcasing new techniques in the field of complex coronary intervention which he is an expert at.